Thomas Jefferson School of Law (TJSL) Code of Conduct

The Higher Education Opportunity Act requires all educational institutions with a preferred lender arrangement (defined as "recommending, promoting, or endorsing the education loan products of the lender") to comply with a Code of Conduct described in HEOA. This code of conduct must be published prominently on the institution's website and all of the institution's agents with responsibilities with respect to education loans must be annually informed of the provisions of such code of conduct.

The seven elements of the Code of Conduct requirements are the following:

1. Ban on revenue-sharing arrangements
2. Gift ban
3. Contracting arrangements prohibited
4. Interaction with borrowers
5. Prohibitions on offers of funds for private loans
6. Ban on staffing assistance
7. Advisory Board compensation

TJSL adheres to the following code of conduct:

the board regarding education loans at the institution; or

(iii) an officer, employee, or contractor of a lender, guarantor, or servicer of education loans from serving on a board of directors, or serving as a trustee, of an institution, if the institution has a written conflict of interest policy that the board member or trustee must recuse themselves from any decision regarding education loans at the institution.
